CANBERRA EXCURSION Year 5 & 6 Students

We have received an updated email from Deanna Spackman – Corndale School principal. Approximate cost for excursion based on current numbers is $859 per student. There is an extra cost of $44 each to purchase a Canberra Hoodie with students first name embroidered on it. This is to ensure that all students are easily identifiable during daily visits to Canberra attractions.

Costing for Whian Whian families will be approximately, $550 per student. There will be a date set for a get together early next term to discuss the itinerary, what to bring and expectations of behaviour.
